Washington D.C., September 27 – 8 October 1965

RESOLUTION

CD16.R13

REPORT ON ADMINISTRATIVE RATIONALIZATION IN THE PASB

THE 16th DIRECTING COUNCIL,

Having examined the report of the Director on the administrative rationalization in the Pan American Sanitary Bureau (Document CD16/16); 1

Noting the progress made to date in accomplishing the objectives of the program;

Bearing in mind the economies effected as a result of the program of rationalization and the [consequent] investment of funds in program services to the Governments; and

Cognizant of the continued efforts that are being made to improve the internal methods and procedures through the implementation of data-processing systems,

RESOLVES

1.To take note of the report of the Director on the administrative rationalization in the Pan American Sanitary Bureau (Document CD16/16).

2.To commend the Director and the staff of PASB for their efforts to date in effecting economies in administration through the recentralization of administrative activities and the introduction of data-processing techniques.

3.To request the Director to continue the program of rationalization and to report on progress at future meetings of the Governing Bodies.
