25th SESSION OF THE REGIONAL COMMITTEE

Washington D.C., 8 – 18 October 1973

RESOLUTION

CD22.R24

FIRST NATIONAL HEALTH CONVENTION OF MÉXICO

THE 22nd DIRECTING COUNCIL,

Having heard with great interest the report presented by the Delegation of Mexico on the I National Health Convention of Mexico, held in that country in July 1973; and

Considering that the report contains important indications relative to a new methodology for health planning,

RESOLVES

1. To note the report of the I National Health Convention of Mexico.
2. To congratulate the Government of that country on having taken the initiative to hold this important meeting, whose valuable contributions will be of great usefulness to all the countries.
3. To request the Government of Mexico to keep the Governing Bodies of the Organization informed of progress in its health planning.
