¹ "Organization of the Forum of Candidates for the Post of Director of the Pan American Sanitary Bureau" (SPBA1/8 and SPBA 1/8, Corrigendum [2007]), and Final Report of the First Session of the Subcommittee on Program, Budget, and Administration of the Executive Committee (SPBA1/FR [2007]).

Format of the Forum

1. The Candidates Forum shall be conducted by the President of the Executive Committee in accordance with the Rules Governing the Forum of Candidates Nominated for the Position of Director of the Pan American Sanitary Bureau, with assistance from the Secretariat.
2. The Candidates' Forum shall be closed to the public.
3. Candidates shall be allowed no more than 30 minutes to make an oral presentation and one hour for questions and answers from Member States, Participating States, and Associate Members in attendance. The time limit should be strictly adhered to.
4. The order of the presentations to be made by the candidates shall be determined by lot, and candidates will be called one at a time.
5. The oral presentation shall include the candidate's platform outlining their vision, proposed policy priorities, and financial and programmatic direction for the Organization.
6. At the beginning of each candidate's oral presentation, one representative of each Member State, Participating State, and Associate Member participating in the Forum will receive a piece of paper from the Secretariat on which, at any time during the oral presentation, he/she may write a single question. This implies that a representative should not divide the question into different parts such that there is, in effect, more than one question. If the President receives a paper with a question divided into parts in a way that substantively constitutes more than one question, he/she may exercise his/her discretion to ask only one part of the question.
7. Representatives should write the names of their countries clearly on the piece of paper upon which they have written a question.
8. The President of the Executive Committee will ask those representatives who write a question to keep the paper with their question until the end of each candidate's oral presentation, at which time these papers will be collected by the Secretariat.
9. Member States, Participating States, and Associate Member participating using PAHO's Web Conference Services virtual technology Elluminate should submit their questions to the President using the Elluminate chat area, addressing them to the virtual session "Moderator". Each question will be printed by the Moderator, identified by country, and given to the Secretariat to be included with the other questions submitted by the representatives present in the room.*

* These steps are subject to adjustments dependent on the virtual technology used at the time of the Forum.

10. The President will count all the questions submitted so that everyone—including the candidates— know how many questions might be asked and thus have the option of shortening their responses in order to answer more questions.
11. The questions will then be put into a bag and the President will draw one at a time, and read out loud.
12. Each candidate will have a maximum of 3 minutes to respond to each question.
13. The one-hour period for the question and answer session will commence as the President begins to read the first question.
14. If the President draws a question which seems similar to one already posed to the same candidate, he/she will ask the representative who originated this question if he/she agrees not to ask that question.
15. The President will ask as many questions as possible within the hour allotted for the question-and-answer session. If there are not enough questions to fill the one hour allowed, the President may solicit additional questions from the representatives of the Member States, Participating States, and Associate Members attending following the same procedure that was used for the initial round of questions until the hour has been exhausted.
16. In order to ensure fair treatment of all candidates, when the time allowed for the presentations and the questions is exhausted, the President shall be strict, but will allow the speaker to finish his or her sentence.

Lighting System for the Oral Presentation and the Question-and-Answer Session

17. A lighting system will keep track of the oral presentation and the question-and answer session.
18. For the oral presentation the light will be green during the first 25 minutes. When 5 minutes remain, the light will turn orange. At the end of 30 minutes, the light will become red. At that time the President shall ask the speaker to finish his or her presentation.
19. For the question and answer session, the light will be green during the first 55 minutes of the session. When the 5 minutes remain in the session, the light will turn orange. When the hour allotted for the question and answer session is over, the light will turn red.
20. Each candidate will be allowed 3 minutes to respond each question. The light will be green for the entire 3 minutes allowed for the candidate's response. It will turn red when the 3 minutes are up.
