ABRAHAM HORWITZ AWARD FOR INTER-AMERICAN HEALTH, 2000

The Director of the Pan American Sanitary Bureau is pleased to announce that the Abraham Horwitz Award for Inter-American Health, 2000, will be presented during the 42nd Directing Council to Dr. Abraham Sonis of Argentina. The Award, which is administered by the Pan American Health and Education Foundation (PAHEF), recognizes and stimulates excellence and leadership in health among persons working in the Americas and whose ideas and work are of regional significance.

The Pan American Health and Education Foundation is a public, nonprofit foundation based in Washington, D.C., which is dedicated to improving the health of the people of the Americas. The Foundation raises, manages, and distributes funds for a variety of public health initiatives which support the mission and objectives of the Pan American Health Organization (PAHO). The Foundation works to combat disease, lengthen life, elevate nutrition levels, and improve the environment, particularly water quality and accessibility, in Latin America and the Caribbean. In addition, the Foundation promotes the education and training of physicians and allied health workers through publication of medical textbooks, health and pharmacological bulletins, and continuing education materials. The Foundation is governed by a 12-member independent Board of Trustees.

Recipients of the Abraham Horwitz Award have had outstanding lifetime careers in medicine or public health, demonstrating impact on the lives and health of the peoples of Latin America and/or the Caribbean. They are selected by a committee, which consists of five members, including two designated by the Director of the PASB and three
